

Southeast U.S. Call to Action: The Elimination of HPV Cancers Starting with Cervical Cancer as a Public Health Concern

ELIMINATION SUPPORT STRATEGIES

1 Provide support for elimination planning efforts to states and jurisdictions in the Southeast region.	2 Develop and disseminate elimination resources to states and jurisdictions in the Southeast region	3 Provide technical assistance to states and jurisdictions in the Southeast region.
---	---	---

SOUTHEAST ROUNDTABLE PRIMARY ELIMINATION GOALS

HPV Vaccination	Cervical Cancer Screening	Follow-Up, Diagnosis, & Treatment
Increase the percentage of adolescents aged 13-17 years—and starting at age 9 where data are available—across the Southeast completing the HPV vaccination series to 80% by 2030.	Increase the percentage of people with a cervix across the Southeast who are up to date on cervical cancer screening per current U.S. Preventive Services Task Force guidelines to 80% by 2030.	Increase the percentage of people with a cervix across the Southeast who receive follow-up, diagnosis, and treatment (if needed) for abnormal screening results to 80% by 2030.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Promote HPV vaccination through regional campaigns (e.g., It's Our Way Down South)</li> <li>• Train providers on effective recommendations and addressing vaccine hesitancy</li> <li>• Implement quality improvement (QI) strategies (e.g., reminder/recall systems, standing orders)</li> <li>• Support provider participation in immunization information systems and Vaccines For Children programs</li> <li>• Monitor vaccination data by geography and demographics</li> <li>• Track and respond to changes in national HPV vaccination recommendations</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Promote U.S. Preventive Services Task Force cervical cancer screening guidelines</li> <li>• Train providers in quality improvement strategies for screening and follow-up</li> <li>• Expand access to follow-up and treatment through mobile colposcopy units</li> <li>• Increase provider capacity by training nurse practitioners as colposcopy providers</li> <li>• Monitor screening and incidence data by geographic unit and demographics</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Increase awareness that cervical cancer is preventable and curable when caught early</li> <li>• Promote provider use of the American Society for Colposcopy and Cervical Pathology risk-based management app and guidelines</li> <li>• Monitor follow-up, diagnosis, and treatment data by geography and demographics</li> </ul>